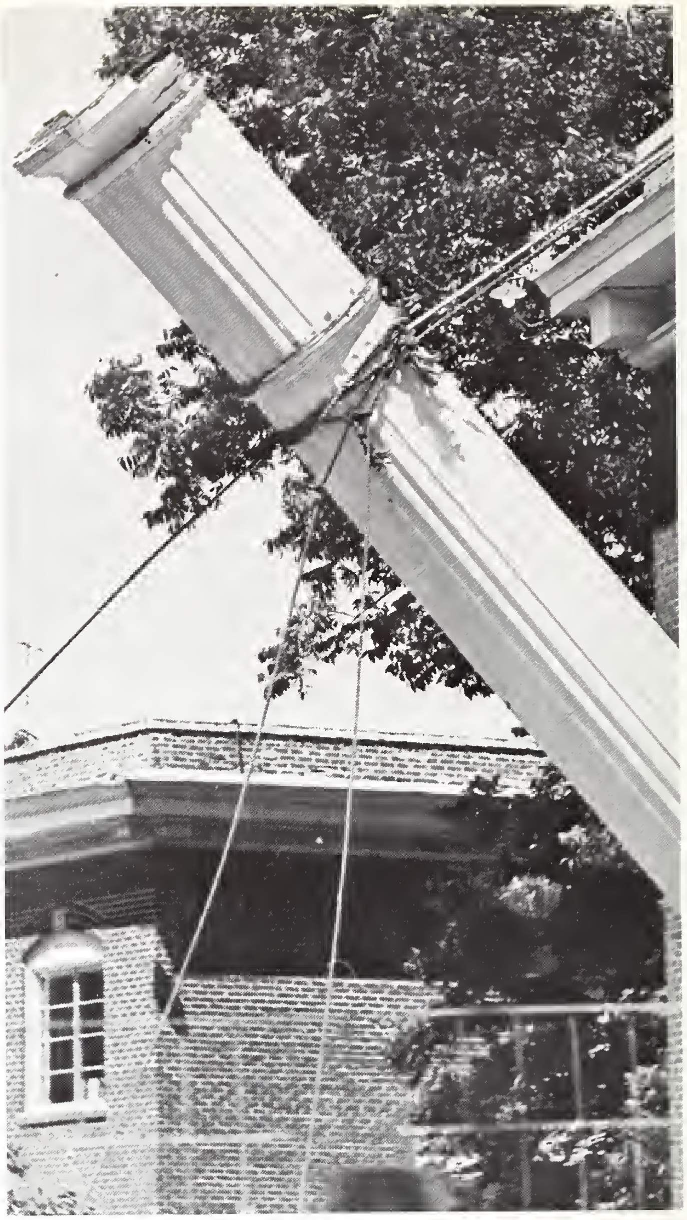
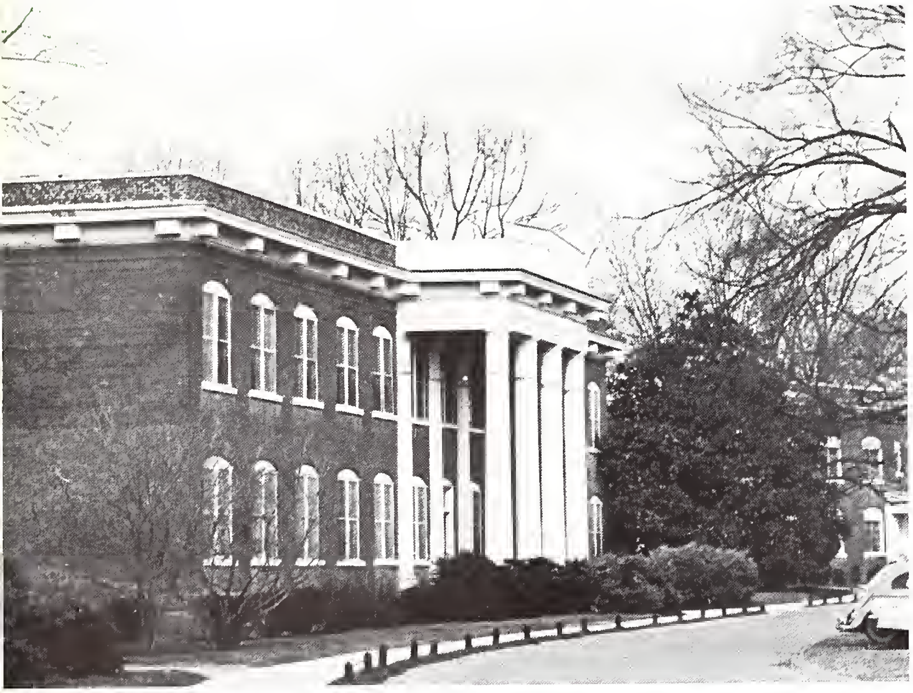
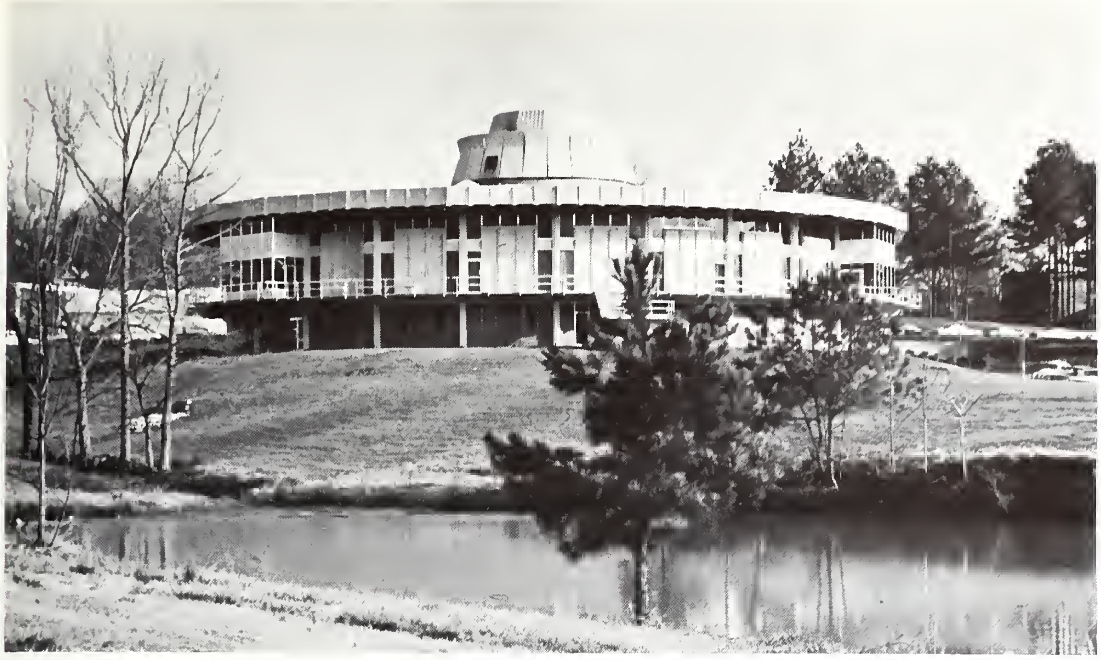
The Columns Came Tumbling Down

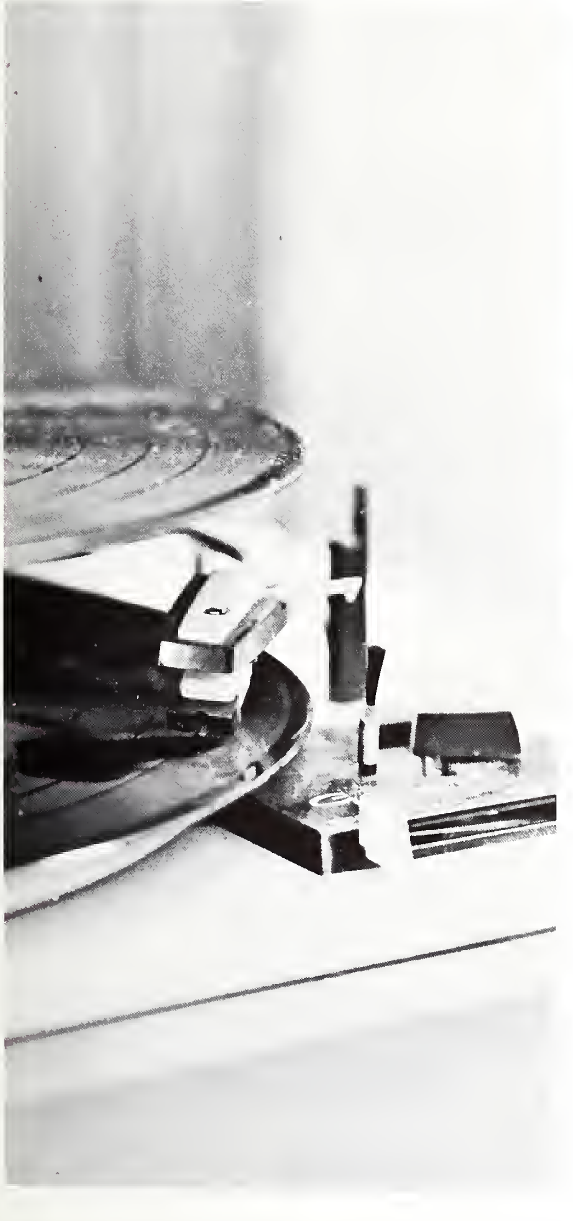
West Georgia lost one of its oldest landmarks last summer when the Ionian columns which had graced the front of the administration building for 50-odd years had to be removed because they posed a threat to the lives and limbs of all who passed through them. Future plans, however, call for their replacement, an undertaking that cannot be begun too soon.





Before





Student Center? Student Union? Finally Open

Amid a bit of controversy, the round building designed to serve as a gathering place for students, faculty, and alumni opened in August. Its circular confines were put to good use immediately by the college community, and one thing on which everyone agreed was that it was a most attractive and welcome addition to the campus.

First West Georgia Freshman Retreat a Splashing Success

For three days prior to the Fall quarter, forty-eight incoming West Georgia freshmen participated in a camping retreat. Its purpose was to familiarize the freshmen with the policies and philosophy of the school. Faculty members and outstanding upperclassmen spoke to the freshmen. A highlight of the retreat was a demonstration by Mr. Don Gehring on how to fall from a canoe. A good time was had by almost everyone.

Rat Week antics.

Bewitched, Bothered and Bewildered

A greatly spirited crew of freshmen entered West Georgia Fall quarter. They had the benefit of being welcomed by a very nice College Union building, unlike previous freshman classes, but they were probably heckled more than any other group. Saying farewells to parents and having their minds scanned by placement tests were soon followed by the real torments of Rat Week. Degraded by mudfights, jeered at by all, they emerged triumphant at the week's end as full-fledged students who had just begun to fight.

"Baby The Rain Must Fall . . ." . . . Glenn Yarbrough; Oct., 1967.

Glenn Yarbrough, top folk singer, headed the list of Fall quarter entertainment. Yarbrough captivated his audience with such numbers as the hit "Baby, the Rain Must Fall." Appearing with Yarbrough were the Fred Ramirez Trio and instrumentalists Maffitt and Davies.

Construction Never Stops at West Georgia.

Construction of new facilities progressed at a rapid pace, as has been the case for the past few years. Nearing completion was the beautiful new Academic Complex, with its library, Science and Mathematics building, and Social Science building. Also reaching final stages was a new 300-capacity women's dormitory, and work has begun on a new Classroom Arts Building. And the work will go on. Authorized for construction is a 400 capacity men's dorm, while two 300 capacity dorms, one for men and one for women, have reached the stage of design completion. Also at this stage is a new Education building.

Sue Gantt Captures 1968 Miss Chieftain Crown.

The night is for beauty. The girls on this night were beauties, and the outcome was a night of beauty and enjoyment for witnesses to the selecting and crowning of Miss Chieftain. Sue Gantt, the chosen queen, is a very popular and interesting person. Among her other activities on campus, she especially enjoyed playing on the women's volleyball team, and she was a versatile team member, too.

Paul Shields, emcee, presents Sue Gantt the traditional winner's roses at the 1968 Beauty Revue.

Homecoming, 1967
Shirells and Action

Homecoming 1967 featured the crowning of Miss Patsy Bray as Homecoming queen. The dance brought the Shirells and a band called the Cavaliers. The theme of Homecoming was "West Georgia College: Past, Present, and Future," and the award for the best decorated dormitory was taken by Row. The Braves basketball game produced the defeat of Tennessee Temple 84-58. It was quite a successful event.

The Pep Band and Bravettes cheered the Braves on to victory over Tenn. Temple.

The Shirells broke things wide open at the dance.

Orleans Symphony

New York Pro Musica gave its first Southeastern workshop at West Georgia. They were in residence for three days.

The Atlanta Civic Ballet brought a fine evening in February to a large audience of students, faculty, and townspeople. The program included light romancy waltzes and a movingly handled interpretation of the Jason-Medea legend.

Atlanta Tams Shook! W.G.C. Shook With Them!

The students of West Georgia got involved! In a riot of happiness, as the West Georgian reported the event to be, the singing group was joined on stage by a large group of audience. The Tams caused the student energies to rise to a high point. It was all in fun, of course, but the result was the use of curative measures at the following concerts, especially the Little Anthony visit.

Little Anthony

"Well I Think I'm Going Out of My Head" . . . "It Hurts So Bad."

Little Anthony and the Imperials came to the campus, and enthusiastic fans here paid a dollar or a pint of blood to the Red Cross to see this exciting group. After a performance by Larry Bowie's "Rock Garden," the Imperials blasted and/or crooned their many hit songs including "I Think I'm Going Out of My Head" and "It Hurts So Bad."

"Hansel and Gretel" Summer 1967

A stage adaptation of Hans Christian Anderson's Hansel and Gretel was the Summer production of Alpha Theta. The play was directed by Mr. Nelson Carpenter and starred David Norrell and Mavis Crowe in the title roles and featured Colleen Scheen as the wicked witch. Other members of the cast were Boyd Edgerton, Jane McRae, Terri Taylor, Jenny Crowell, Lynne Scudder, Marie Veitia, Jim Warren, and Steve Norrell.

"A Man For All Seasons"
By
Robert Bolt

A Man for All Seasons, written by Robert Bolt, was produced by Mr. Carpenter and Alpha Theta Fall quarter. The play tells the story of a man, Sir Thomas More, and his struggles between his conscience and his duty to a king. The portrayals were convincing, and especially outstanding were Larry Bowie as the common man and John Adams as Sir Thomas More.

"Any Wednesday"
By
Murial Musnik

Directed By: Nelson M. Carpenter

"Any Wednesday" was presented in the winter quarter in repertory with "The Women", both directed by Nelson Carpenter. "Any Wednesday" is a light comdy about a man, his mistress, his wife, and a business associate who is in from another city. Through chance they all become entangled in "The Executive Suite."

Don Huskins, as the tycoon.

Cass Henderson hides behind Miss Gordon.

"I'll be back on Wednesday." Jane MacRea and Don Huskins.

"The Women" — A Comedy by Clare Booth Luce

Directed By: Nelson M. Carpenter

"The Women" carried the audience through two years in the lives of a group of women who are members of the decadent "Aristocracy." It presents a slightly unflattering picture of the fairer sex.

This story of marriage, divorce, and pregnancy is told completely without men; it is an all female cast.

Crystal (Susan Wroble) begins making plans to wreck another marriage.

Sylvia (Linda Beall) thinks of how and who she can hurt next.

Mary (Sharyl Allen) is presented with her husband's ideas for her future, after divorce.

ATHLETICS

Basketball, cheerleaders, bravettes, swimming, M.I.A., W.A.R.A.

The Braves, under first year coach Jan Bennett, finished the season with a 12-10 record—the second best in WGC history. The young team, with five members on the new athletic scholarship program, shows great promise for future seasons.

VARSITY TRACK

WGC's indoor and outdoor track teams continued to break school records in 1968. The team, under Coach Gary Wilson, captured the GIAC title in 1967 and their record points to future victories.

Eddie Crumbley, Steve Worth, David Johnson, Kenny Duke, and Dennis Fifield won fourth place for WGC at the Montgomery Coliseum Championships in February.

Braves Place 9th in the Nation, and Capture GIAC Crown in 67.

The Braves of West Georgia College, who were ranked ninth in the nation last year as well as tops in the GIAC Conference, were the top fielding team in the United States for the second straight year in 1967. With eleven players returning from last year's squad, the 1968 squad is considered one of the most talented to be assembled at West Georgia.

Women's Athletic and Recreation Association is the largest women's organization on campus. It is open to all women who enjoy sports, athletic activities, and having a good time.

This year was full of changes for WARA—even its name is new. The participation is now on a dormitory basis, with each dorm having the name of a tribe. This was done to enable more women to participate and also to help foster greater "dorm spirit" on campus. The activities are varied and they range from soccer to gymnastics to badminton. There are even bridge tournaments for those who like a little less active recreation.

Sportsmanship is the basis of WARA, and all of the activities are aimed at this end so that participation will be enjoyable for all.

1968 Chieftain Staff Works for a Good Book

Fresh air and scenery inspire Chieftain editors for journalistic work.

The Chieftain staff produced the college yearbook. The various section editors worked under the guidance of Larry Naylor, Editor-in-Chief, and Cynthia Brown, Associate Editor. In addition, Mr. McMichael, faculty advisor, worked closely with the staff in bringing the book together. A general staff of about 15 students did much of the endless information-gathering and provided assistance to the section editors. The Chieftain worked especially this year to picture the unity of divergent activity that is a college.

The Eclectic gained a new faculty advisor this year. Mr. Bryg worked with editor Robert Willingham to bring out a magazine of student literary work each quarter. Poetry, short stories, and art work were selected from student work submitted. Fall quarter brought memorable short stories and poetry while winter's magazine was all poetry. Among the students whose work was used were artists Alice Carroll, Joan Lange, William Porter, Criss Mills, and Ed Collier, and writers Alan Whitman, Reggie Coffeen, Bruce Wingo, Dorothy Worth, Warren Brewer, Mary Jo Muse, Robert Sullivan, John Adams, Frank Osburn, Susan Beckham, Robert Barr, Roger S. West Georgian Bombasts Campus With News, Events

The West Georgian staff put out a paper every Friday to give readers the important events and announcements. Ed Collier effectively edited the paper fall quarter and part of winter quarter. Carole Mumford, long a member of the staff, became editor during winter quarter. Dr. Matthews and Mr. Mulkey were active leaders and very often co-workers in the Wednesday night deadline rush. Popular features included columns of movie and book reviews, campus choice, and editorial comment. The newspaper was recognized by an award from the Georgia Scholastic Press Association for excellence in editorial writings.

College Band Performs for Concert and Sports Event

The West Georgia College Band is one of West Georgia's faster growing organizations. It presents concerts on campus as well as surrounding areas. Included are performances for West Georgia College convocations, the Winter Concert, the Parents Day Concert Under the Trees, the Formal Spring Concert with a nationally known guest soloist, and June commencement. Even during the Spring Holidays, off-campus concerts are presented in the Carrollton and Atlanta areas.

Some of the members of the College Band combine to form the Pep Band—furnishing spirit for all home basketball games and pep rallies.

Alpha Theta Produces Drama for College

OIN ALPHA THETANOW

Alpha Theta is an especially active club. It is the group which is involved in helping to produce plays. Those staged this year were A Man for All Seasons, The Women, Any Wednesday. At the awards banquet last spring, Dott Cofer and Gary Watts were chosen best actress and best actor and Diane Green and Don Huskins were best supporting actress and actor.

The officers of the club were Alvin Owens, president; Daneise Hubert, vice-president; Jo Jutchens, secretary; Clare Verdell, treasurer; Jerry Mathis and Barry Bilbro, hosts; and Sharon Grimes and Phyllis Jackson, hostesses. The faculty sponsor was Wallace Buice. Mr. Buice was very active and interested in making the club a real pleasure to its members.

The Chorale sings in Atlanta.

The Symphonic Choir sings at Christmas.

You're Not Involved in the Song"

In the past three years, the West Georgia Choir has traveled over 20,000 miles in singing for 50,000 people. This year they performed for schools, churches, and civic groups in the state. During the Spring, the choir took its first extensive out-of-state trip. The Eastern Tour included performances in North Carolina, Pennsylvania, New York, and New Jersey.

Programs presented by the choir included the finest choral music of all styles, both sacred and secular, traditional and avant garde.

In addition to the Concert Choir, there is the Chorale, a smaller group composed of Concert Choir members.

History-Political Science Asks "Is Violence As American As Apple Pie?"

During the year the History-Political Science Club, under the leadership of George Edwards and faculty members, Mr. Krebs and Mr. Wise, made possible several panel speaker-discussion sessions on some very timely topics. One panel which included the Carrollton Chief of Police, the circuit judge and local lawyer, led a discussion on law enforcement in this county. Another panel, led by Dr. Moore of Psychology, Mr. Mykketvedt of political science, Dr. Finnie of History, and Mr. Iseley of Sociology, discussed the question of the violence in American life today.

Young Marrieds Formed This Year

Mr. Sanders, Advisor; Steve Burdett, Mr. and Mrs. Burgess Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Darden, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Harrell, Mr. and Mrs. David Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hines, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miller.

The Young Marrieds' Club was formed this year for West Georgia students with this common interest. The advisor was Placement Director Sanders, and the President was Burgess Thomas. Rob Darden was Vice-President, and Linda Pool was secretary-treasurer. The group met twice a month with activities such as dances, picnics and just plain talk.

Junior Women Honored

The Junior Women's Honor Society was formed this year as a sort of outgrowth of the Freshman Women's Honor Society, formed the year before. It recognized outstanding students scholastically and overall. The advisor was Dean Martin, who also sponsored the Freshman Women.

Brenda edits Omega, the journal of the club. Delta Psi Omega is active mostly in the form of lecture series on math and has established an awards program for students of math to be given by a faculty committee in the spring of the year.

Geology Club Explores Cambodia Via Film And Copperhill in the Field

Fearlessly led by Dr. Morehead, Mr. Austen, and Mr. Crawford, the Geology Club is a group of students with special interests in this rather new subject of West Georgia College. Meetings featured such topics as Cambodian geology. Of course, field trips and parties were also club activities. The club went to Copperhill, Tennessee to collect specimens for the use of geology classes. Another interesting meeting featured the State Geologist of Alabama, Mr. Lambrose, an expert on ground water projects.

Baptist Student Union

The Baptist Student Union, with president Askew, pursues a wide program in an effort to serve and involve Christians. "Confrontation" is the Tuesday night activity. Monday and Thursday nights offer "Meditations," and Friday night is the occasion for missions to the Carrollton area. With 43 other Georgia colleges, the local Union forms the Georgia Baptist Student Union. There is no set membership roll, but the group reports participation from around 200 different students. In the summer of 1967 West Georgia was represented by summer missionaries Gay Davis, Indiana; Carol Sappe, Indiana; Charles Pope, South Dakota; Patsy Kubala, Kansas; and Lynda Lambeth, Oregon. The future BSU includes the building of a Baptist Student Center.

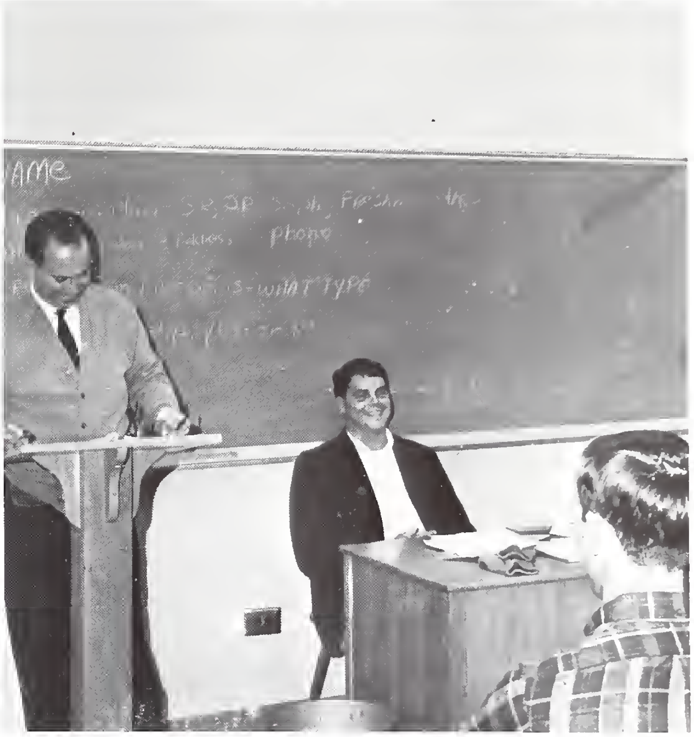
Pistol and Rifle Club Led by Dr. Veitia

The Pistol and Rifle Club is a fairly new club at West Georgia College and is affiliated with the National Rifle Association. There are about 65 members who enjoy pistol and rifle matches, the annual Turkey Shoot, and the Rifle Site.

The club serves to promote pistol and rifle marksmanship and a spirit of competition and sportsmanship.



Bridge Group Matches Minds on Tuesday Nights

The Bridge Club members participate in tournament play every Tuesday night. Prizes, which are donated by Carrollton merchants, are awarded to winners of each game. The purpose of the club is to provide a chance to play for people who enjoy duplicate bridge.

Modern Dance Club

Executive Dorm Council Tries to Enrich Dorm Life

The Executive Dorm Council is composed of representatives from each dormitory on campus, usually the presidents of the individual dormitories. Its purpose is to enrich dormitory living through better communication between dormitories. Much activity has come about through this effort. Boykin and Row have become "brother-sister" dorms, publishing a newspaper, sponsoring dances, and sharing study materials and ideas. Gunn and Pritchard have made similar moves. The Council is also concerned with stimulating activity for oncampus students and, in general, promoting a more interesting life for the dormitory students at West Georgia College.

The Union Board is a group of faculty, students, and administrative officials who are concerned with the programs, practices, and services offered by the College Union. They might be called a group with a constant headache because of their responsibilities in keeping the Union running smoothly. They must deal with everything from keeping the snack bar clean to preventing abuse of the building and offering suitable activities to the student body.

FACULTY

Dr. James E. Boyd came to West Georgia College as president in August of 1961 after a distinguished record as a scientist, scholar, and academic administrator at the Georgia Institute of Technology. During the period he has been at the helm of the college, its rate of growth has exceeded that of all other institutions of higher education in Georgia.

After receiving the Bachelor of Arts degree in mathematics from the University of Georgia, the Master of Arts in mathematics from Duke University and the Ph.D. degree in physics from Yale University, Dr. Boyd began his professional academic career as a member of the original faculty of West Georgia College. Before continuing his career at Tech, he met and married a native Carrolltonian, Elizabeth Reynolds Cobb.

Dr. Boyd closely watches the progress of West Georgia's Academic Complex, the college's most ambitious project to date.

PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE

While the college has been his first concern, Dr. Boyd has also given leadership in civic, educational, religious, and business activities on the local, state, and larger levels. For example, as vice-chairman of the Georgia Science and Technology Commission and chairman of its Task Force on Oceanography, he has been a moving force in Georgia's entry in the oceanography field. A member of St. Margaret's Episcopal Church, he serves on the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Atlanta and has twice served as a deputy to the General Convention of the Church.

West Georgia College has profited by Dr. Boyd's unusual ability to project accurately the pattern of growth of the institution insofar as enrollment, budgetary requirements, and physical facilities are concerned, and his success in effectively presenting these needs and opportunities to the Board of Regents and to others. His vision and leadership in education and in other fields have earned him a reputation as one of the outstanding college presidents in the country.

DIVISION OF EDUCATION with nine new staff members added new equipment, degrees, and research programs during 1967-68. While waiting on the new Education Building, which is in the planning stage, the department expanded into the old President's home. The new center for learning was equipped with closed circuit television, monitors, video tapes and cameras. Graduate programs and special services to public schools and school teachers were an important part of the department's work. For the first time the department offered a Masters degree in Psychology, a Master of Education degree in Special Education, Secondary Education, Junior High Education, and Counseling and Guidance.

CHAIRMAN: James W. Mathews, Professor of English; A.B., David Lipscomb College; M.A., Emory University; Ph.D., University of Tennessee

DIVISION OF HUMANITIES includes the fields of English language and literature, languages, fine arts, and philosophy. One of the chief objectives is to help the student become increasingly aware of the great literary and artistic foundations of our civilization. Awaiting the completion of the classroom arts building, the Humanities division moved into the newly completed classroom buildings. English, Philosophy, and Speech moved into the Social Sciences building, and the Languages moved into the Math and Physics building.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH concerns itself with the teaching of English, American and World Literature, composition, and the English language. It also is concerned with the training of future teachers of English. In each of the areas mentioned an effort is made to present the structure of the subject matter involved in a way that is meaningful and interesting to the student. It is hoped that many of the students will develop a desire to read literary works, to formulate their views in writing, and to understand the structure of the English language. As in other departments, the English Department began a graduate school last summer and will have graduates this summer.

THE DEPARTMENT OF FINE ARTS accomplished much this year and like the rest of West Georgia, expanded a great deal. All of the organizations in the department have grown in both size and ability, and several programs have been added or reinstated.

This year approval was given for a bachelor of Music degree, with emphasis on music education and applied music. The W.G.C. Invitational Debate Tourney was reinstated and held in January. Quarterly plays were presented as usual by Alpha Theta. In the winter quarter two plays were presented in repertory, another first at West Georgia College.

Highlights of 1968 for the fine arts department were: The New York Pro Musica in residence, presented in January, Handel's entire Messiah was presented by the college choirs and the Atlanta symphony orchestra in March, and the annual Fine Arts Festival was held May 1-10, with art exhibits from the Nordness Gallery in New York.

THE DIVISION OF SCIENCE AND MATHEMATICS feels the importance of basic knowledge in the areas of science and Mathematics in the modern world cannot be overestimated. It endeavors to impress this upon the student and at the same time to develop in him an understanding and appreciation of scientific methods and philosophy. In addition it seeks to provide the best possible training to those students who have particular interests in these areas.

CHAIRMAN: Leonard Rupert Daniel, Professor of Chemistry; B.Ch.E., Ph.D., Georgia Institute of Technology

DEPARTMENT HEAD: Hughlan W. Pope, Professor of Chemistry; B.S., Carson-Newman College; M.S., University of Georgia; Ph.D., Vanderbilt University

CHEMISTRY is a science that shows the interrelationships of all the sciences. The department wants to show this and to introduce to students the importance of chemistry. The West Georgia Chemical Society wants to promote this interest and to give opportunities for student and faculty expression, and to promote scholarship in chemistry. The department has recently acquired new equipment such as atomic absorption apparatus. With such advances and with the addition of new faculty members, the department hopes for even further expansion, research, and excellent teaching.

Latha Mimbs Barnes, Assistant Professor of Chemistry; A.B., Berry College; M.S., University of Mississippi

James M. Berryman, Assistant Professor of Chemistry; B.S., M.S., candidate for Ph.D., University of Georgia

GEOLOGY

Thomas J. Crawford, Assistant Professor of Earth Science; A.B., M.S., Emory University

Marcus Billy Morehead, Assistant Professor of Earth Science; B.S., University of Georgia; candidate for Ph.D., University of North Carolina

DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS wishes to show to students the importance of mathematics and its usefulness in their every undertaking. It initiated a program to provide assistance to students who are too poorly prepared in high school for Mathematics 101. The department offered graduate courses looking forward to the authorization of a Master's program. The department also sponsors Delta Psi Omega, the math club, open to interested students.

DEPARTMENT HEAD: Alfred L. Duquette, Professor of Mathematics; B.S., University of Massachusetts; A.M., Columbia University; Ph.D., University of Colorado

DEPARTMENT HEAD: Herman W. Boyd, Associate Professor of Physics; A.B., Middle Tennessee State College; M.A., Ph.D., Vanderbilt University

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS is interested in introducing to students all areas of physics and the advantages of them. The department is rapidly expanding with additional faculty members and larger grants which aid in the securing of newer and better equipment such as the recently purchased nuclear data channel analyzer, and the Phillips X-Ray generator. A newly organized Physics Club has been established which hopes to become a portion of the student section of the American Institute of Physics. The department looks forward to the future with hope for further expansion and research.

DIVISION OF SOCIAL SCIENCE changed its curriculum and teaching methods this year. To accommodate greater numbers of students, larger sections in History were created, with plans to do the same in the other departments in this Division. An A.B. degree is offered in History, Political Science, and Sociology, and a Master's Degree is available in History. Geography, also in this division, does not yet offer a major.

Under the direction of Dr. Eugene Huck, chairman of the division of social science, a new major field of concentration was created in Latin American Area studies. Courses for the history and political science graduation requirements were revamped and a refresher course was added for those who elect to take the tests instead.

CHAIRMAN: Eugene Roger Huck, Professor of History; A.B., Temple University; M.A., Ph.D., University of Alabama

HISTORY

ACTING HEAD: W. Benjamin Kennedy, Assistant Professor of History; A.B., Georgetown College; M.A., University of North Carolina; Ph.D., University of Georgia

Robert Howard Claxton, Assistant Professor of History; B.A., Houghton College; M.A., State University of New York; candidate for Ph.D., Tulane University

Livia Barbero, Visiting Foreign Curriculum Specialist Diploma, National Normal School, Sucre, Bolivia; License, La Paz, Bolivia; Doctorate in International Law, Sorbonne, Paris, France

Mitt S. Conerly, Jr., Instructor in History; B.S., M.A., Auburn University

Charles David Rice, Instructor in History; A.B., Georgia State College; M.A., Vanderbilt University

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY this year inaugurated its first year of graduate work with eight graduate students. In keeping with the growing and changing West Georgia campus, the department re-evaluated and made changes in the World Civilization and American History courses. The Department moved into the new Social Sciences Building. An NDEA summer institute was approved this year and will be headed by Dr. Huck and Dr. Griffin.

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE headed by Dr. Doyle Mathis, is in the Social Science Division. Although only an A.B. degree is offered at the present time, a large percentage of Political Science majors go on to graduate or law school.

DEPARTMENT HEAD: Luster Doyle Mathis, Associate Professor of Political Science; A.B., Berry College; M.A., Ph.D., University of Georgia

Elmo Mosteller Roberds, Professor of Political Science; A.B., Emory University; M.A., University of North Carolina; Ph.D., University of Chicago

Chee Soon Ahn, Assistant Professor of Political Science; B. of Law, Seoul National University; M.S., Ph.D., Florida State University

Charles Alexander Scudder, Assistant Professor of Political Science; A.B., Rollins College; M.A., University of Georgia

Roald Y. Mykkeltvedt, Assistant Professor of Political Science, B.A., St. Olaf College; M.A., Ph.D., Florida State University

Henry Joseph Wise, Instructor in Political Science; B.A., Hiram College; M.A., Emory University

THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY attempts to give to the student a workable and scientific approach to social relationships. It believes that with a scientific attitude and approach, a great deal can be learned about the action of people. It is obvious that people must live together, and the study of the principles of Sociology will certainly be of help to the individual in his attempt to relate to his fellow man.

DEPARTMENT HEAD: Donald Gene Chandler, Professor of Sociology; B.S., Georgia Institute of Technology; B.D., Ph.D., Emory University

Stanley Citron, Instructor in Sociology; B.A., Florida State University; M.A., candidate for Ph.D., Emory University.

THE DIVISION OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMIC STUDIES, under the direction of Chairman, Dr. J. Mark Miller, was created this year. The three departments in this division are Business Administration, Business Education, and Economics. The purpose of forming this new division is to give the student a choice of a major field in his area of interest. The four degrees being offered through the Division of Business and Economic Studies are B.S. Degrees in Business Administration and Business Education and A. B. degrees in Accounting and Economics.

CHAIRMAN: J. Mark Miller, Associate Professor of Business Administration; B.S., M.S., Florida State University; Ph.D., Louisiana State University

Willie Carolyn Allen, Instructor in Business Education; B.S., Florida State University; M.S., University of Tennessee

Richard Michael Haney, Instructor in Business Administration; B.B.A., M.B.A., University of Georgia

Office of the Governor

LESTER MADDOX
GOVERNOR

Dear Friend:

I am happy to announce your appointment to the Governor's Youth Council on Alcohol, Tobacco and Health.

Your membership card is attached and the pledge required of members is on the reverse side. It is my earnest desire that you will faithfully keep this pledge.

I am hopeful that this Council will be the force that will enlist hundreds of thousands of young Georgians into a movement that will greatly reduce the use of tobacco and alcohol not only by young people but by adults as well.

Active participation by you and others throughout Georgia will make an enormous contribution to the physical and spiritual well-being of our people.

I am asking each member to enlist one other member until we, together, have caused this Council to be the largest organization of its kind ever formed in Georgia. I am depending on you.

Suggestions and comments would be appreciated as you work with others in your area. Please let me know of the progress you make and of any ideas you may have for the organization.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

Lester Maddox

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges

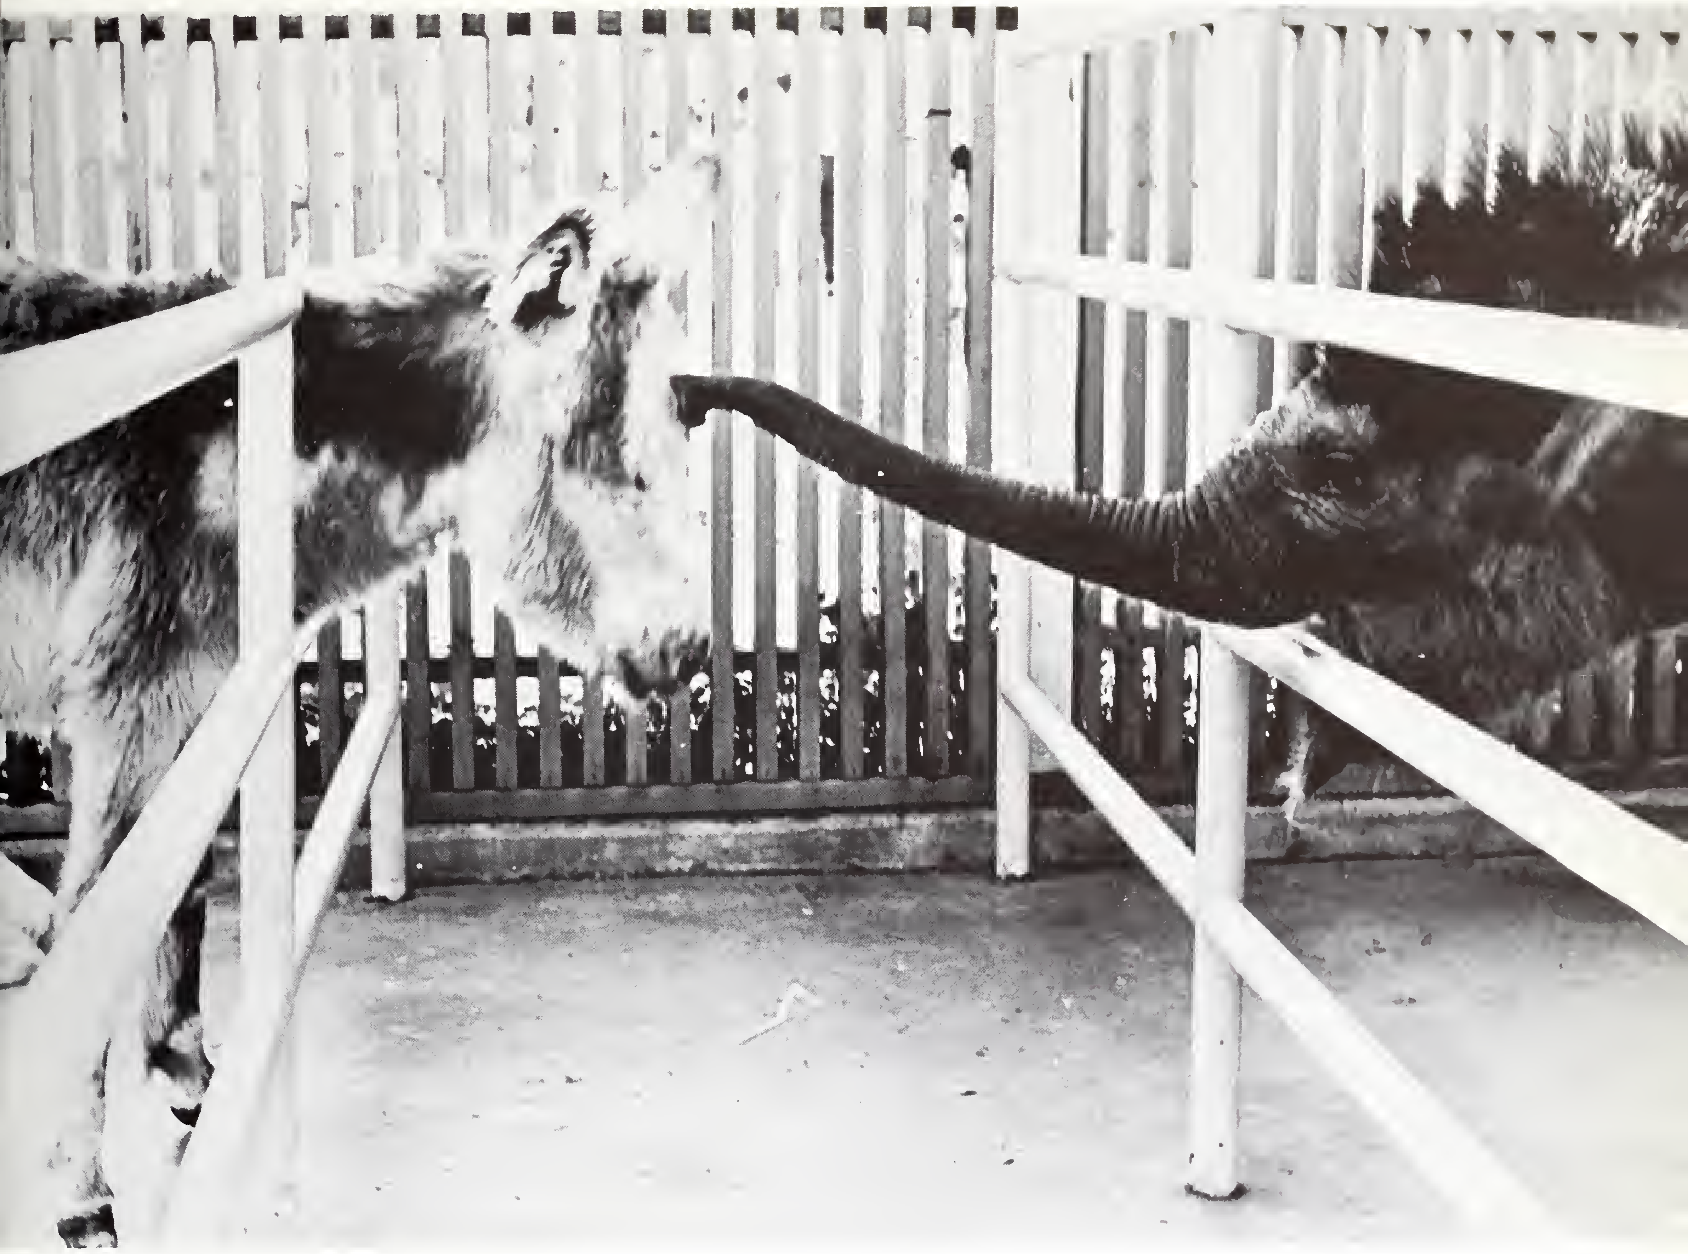
CHIEFTAIN SALUTES:



Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-Eight is a leap year. In the United States leap year is synonymous with ELECTION YEAR. The CHIEFTAIN would like to take this opportunity to salute the men and women of this country who will work for the party of their choice, or better still, the candidate of their choice.

The Republicans are running hard for President Johnson's job, and Mr. Johnson elected not to run, so Humphrey, Kennedy, and McCarthy are seeking the Democratic nomination. Nixon, Rockefeller, Reagan are after the Republican nomination, and George Wallace, former president of Alabama, is just plain running hard.

Why not support a candidate? Who knows, it may be your last chance.

ROW: THE BEST DORM ON CAMPUS

The residents of Row Dorm dedicate this page to its host, "Tom" Iseley, without whose inspiration Row would not have been the leading residence hall of West Georgia College.

Row initiated projects later imitated by the less imaginative halls; Brother-Sister residence halls, residence hall newspapers, and quiz files. It also had its own unique activities: a beard-growing contest, the ugliest man in the dorm contest, and others. No other group of men could duplicate or excel the achievements of Row this year.

Recognizing Row's merits, the administration is converting Row into a women's dorm next year. The men of Row dream fondly of next year's residents.

Host: Mr. Tom Iseley

Editor's Traditional Thing:

Few people find themselves in the position that I now find myself in, and that is the position of having to write the "Editor's Epitaph" for a second time. This time last year I was at a loss for words, but I managed to say what I felt. This year I can only say the same thing.

Second Time Same As The First:

"We have tried to tell a story, something to spark a long lost moment of reality, something to evoke an air of nostalgia.

It will not be known for many years how well we have done our job, but I thank God I've had the chance."
